

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

I'D RATHER BE Camping

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

29

*I Love You to the mountains
and back*

30

*The Mountains
ARE CALLING AND I MUST GO*

- 31
- 32
- 33
- 34
- 35
- 36
- 37
- 38
- 39
- 40
- 41
- 42
- 43
- 44
- 45
- 46

"Bless your heart." [phrase]
1) phrase used to express genuine sympathy 2) not what you think it means

'bout to starve /bout tōō stārv/
adjective.
Seriously hungry. USAGE: "When will dinner be ready? I'm 'bout to starve."

darn tootin' /dārn tōotiN/adverb.
for sure, certainly, sure is

Doohickey /dōō-hikē/
noun.
a small object or gadget, especially one whose name the speaker does not know or cannot recall see also: "thing-a-ma-jig" and "whatsit."

fixin' to /'fiksiN tōō/
noun.
1) getting ready / preparing to
2) it's going to happen, but you may also decide to take your sweet time

full as a tick /fōōl az ā tik/
adjective.
very full from overeating USAGE: "I couldn't eat another bite. I'm full as a tick."

hankerin' for /haNGkəriNG fər/
noun.
a strong desire to have or do something granny-slappin' good /'granē slapiNG gōōd/

adjective.
very good; delicious

ain't that special /ānt IHət speSHəl/
adjective.
something that is anything but special

"Jeet Yet?" [interrogatory]
1. An inquiry of if someone is hungry. USAGE: "Jeet yet?"..."Nah, didju?"

"just a smidge." [noun]
1. a small amount determined by intuitive cooks.
2. a pinch, but likely even less plum tuckered out /pləm 'təkərd out/

adjective.
completely exhausted, very tired

I Reckon /ī' rekən/
verb
I guess, I think, I suppose, I imagine, I believe tide me over /tid mē övər/

verb.
to fight off between meal hunger with a snack.

 "Til the cows come home
/ˈtɪl THē kous kəm hōm/ prepositional phrase.
It's going to take all day

"Well, I declare." /wel i di'kler/
verb.
to loudly and proudly declare feelings of surprise, dissent, or happiness

hit the bushes
/hit IHə böōSHes/
verb.

to go to the bathroom when there isn't an actual bathroom nearby, such as when fishing or camping

hangry [hang-gree]
adjective.

(1) anger fueled by hunger (2) negative change in emotional state caused by hunger